La vita váMimmo & Mario (Live goes on..... M&M - KANTIJ) 95 x 145 cm mixed technique on linnen 2010

P A N O R A M A

A PANORAMA is about the perception and experience of their own environment.

I've always felt the need, to paint my vision of my environment: achieving mapping. I am inspired by the actual (physical / mental) space. Often I take a (panorama) photo of the environment, and look at it in a later date to see it consciously better. So I make images, landscapes full of representations of my perceived environment: hard and soft landscapes.

The 'hard' panorama is a representation of the physical space and refers to the observable form of city buildings and asphalt. The 'soft' panorama refers to the experience, the subjective experiences and expectations of users of a place. Panorama is also a 'Summary' in the sense of evaluation, a summary of an event, a period.

Here some panoramic pictures from the past five years.

Between 2005 and 2008 I worked in Amsterdam on BAUC (Amsterdam Breitner Under Construction), a tribute to the 'hard' city full of pits/ constructions views. In 2008 I painted my series INCANTO, in the colors of my perception of the Tuscan landscapes. Here I made the first soft panoramas.

Since 2009 I work on 'soft' views: in KANTIJ. Give me a lace veil that envelops my perception. Forests with outlines of people inside. What image to follow? Nature or man? Front or back focus?

Drawn or painted, which is visible?

Is the Reality of a panorama not always double-interpretable?
